Price Weaver

Principal

Area of Expertise

Price Weaver is a Co-Founder and Principal at BroadPoint Partners with more than 25 years of experience in industrial real estate. He specializes in tenant and landlord representation, site selection, financial analysis, and lease negotiation. Over his career, he has completed more than 60 million square feet of lease and sale transactions, surpassing $1 billion in total volume. Price has advised a wide variety of clients, ranging from Fortune 500 companies and regional occupiers to local developers and institutional investors.

Since 2000, Price has built a reputation as a trusted advisor known for his ability to navigate shifting market dynamics and negotiate favorable terms. His expertise spans both large-scale distribution facilities and specialized industrial assets, enabling him to deliver tailored solutions that align with his clients' business goals. With a deep knowledge of the industrial sector, strong leadership skills, and a proven ability to close complex deals, Price remains a valuable resource for clients navigating today's evolving real estate landscape.

Business & Educational Background

Price began his real estate career with McWhirter Realty Corporation before joining Colliers International in 2000, where he spent over two decades advising clients on real estate strategy, leasing, and investment. In 2025, he co-founded BroadPoint Partners to
